

Meet TFSU in Tianjin

2025 International Summer Camp at Tianjin Foreign Studies University

About TFSU

Tianjin is one of China's four direct-controlled municipalities, a national central city, a mega city, one of the first coastal open cities, an international consumption center, and a regional trade center. It is a national advanced manufacturing R&D base, the core area of northern international shipping, a financial innovation and operation demonstration zone, and a pioneering area for reform and opening-up. Tianjin is only around 30 minutes away from Beijing by high-speed train.

Tianjin Foreign Studies University, established in 1964, is one of China's eight prestigious institutions for higher education in foreign languages. TFSU is an institution of higher learning, with the discipline of Foreign Language & Literature taking the lead and Humanities, Economics, Administration & Management, Law, Education, Art, and Engineering balancing the overall disciplinary structure. The university now has two campuses occupying a total area of 470,000m². The three Wudadao campuses are located in the historical and architectural tourism area in Tianjin. The Binhai Campus is located in the picturesque university garden of Dagang District, Tianjin Binhai New Area (TBNA).

The university has established friendly cooperation with over 330 universities and educational institutions in more than 50 countries worldwide. The university is a designated institution for recipients of the Chinese Government Scholarship, International Chinese Language Teachers Scholarship, Tianjin Municipal Government Scholarship for Foreign Students, as well as various specialized scholarship programs, including the International Chinese Language Teachers Scholarship- Master Program in Translation for International Students, the Sino-foreign University Language Partner Program, and the Sino- Indonesian Joint Training Program for Major of Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages. Additionally, the university offers scholarship for international students studying at Tianjin Foreign Studies University. The university collaborates with other institutions like Tianjin Vocational University to jointly conduct programs for "Chinese Language + Vocational Skills" for international students. Every year, the university hosts over 2,000 long and short-term international students from more than 60 countries, pursuing undergraduate, master's, and doctoral degrees, or participating in short-term training programs.

Summer Camp Information

By participating in this program, applicants will learn basic Chinese language and traditional Chinese culture, understand the history of Tianjin's development, and tell "Chinese stories" with Tianjin characteristics. They will enhance their understanding and perception of China, experience the unique features of Tianjin and Beijing, broaden their cultural horizons, and develop a greater respect and appreciation for different regional cultures. This will deepen their understanding and perception of China's long-standing history and traditional culture. The 2025 Tianjin Foreign Studies University International Summer Camp will focus on integrating Chinese and foreign cultural elements with Tianjin's unique features, conducting various cross-cultural exchange activities, and improving the scale and quality of students' exchange and study programs in China, to achieve "promoting long-term learning through short-term experience."
